“Finally, the waterfront can take pride in a seafood restaurant. It's Rowes Wharf Sea Grille at Boston Harbor Hotel.”

Mat Schaffer, Boston Herald

“...Bruce knows New England seafood and produce like no one else, and turns out excellent breakfast, lunch, and more substantial dinner options.”

Robert Nadeau, Boston Phoenix

“Meritage chef Daniel Bruce has up and done it, transforming the shuttered Intrigue Cafe into a harborside pescavore paradise.”

Boston Globe Sunday Magazine, Best of the New

“...excellent food. Chef Daniel Bruce has assembled simple dishes that deftly enhance the seafood's flavors, rather than overdressing them with heavy spices or too-thick sauces.”

First Bite: Boston Magazine

“The [Rowes Wharf Sea]Grille is distinct.”

“‘Everyone loves crab rangoons, but unfortunately, most don't have much crab in them.’ Not a problem here.”

Nick Altschuller, Improper Bostonian
