

Witches, Goblins and Ghosts, Oh My!
Get in the Halloween Spirit with Your Child with Spooky Tea at the Boston Harbor Hotel

BOSTON, MA - Before trick-or-treating gets under way this year, drop by the Boston Harbor Hotel's Intrigue Café with your children for some festive Halloween fun!

In celebration of Halloween, the picturesque Intrigue Café will be offering a special Spooky Tea service from Friday, October 26th through Wednesday, October 31st from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

The Boston Harbor Hotel's pastry chef, Bill Romiza, will prepare special Halloween treats. Start off with a warm cup of witch's brew – spiced apple cider – stirred with a cinnamon stick or peppermint. Or, enjoy peppermint hot chocolate with bubbling whipped cream. As kids tease their sweet tooth with scrumptious gooey treats, festive pumpkin and ghost cookies and other mouth watering delights, they can express their creative side with cookie decorating. Each child will receive a personalized "spider plate" to display their creative spooky treats.

A special goody bag will be given to each child who wears a Halloween costume!

Adults can also relax and enjoy the festive holiday tea service beginning with a glass of champagne accompanied by fresh cut autumn fruits and Devonshire cream, a vast selection of teas, holiday cookies and tea sandwiches.

The cost of Spooky Tea is $20.00 for children and $30.00 for adults. For more information or to make reservations please call 617.856.7744.
