Embrace Summer's Arrival 'al Fresco' at Intrigue Café at the Boston Harbor Hotel

Intrigue Café announces the opening of the Terrace on Rowes Wharf

Boston (May 22, 2008) – Intrigue Café invites guests to experience summer dining at its finest at the restaurant's Terrace at Rowes Wharf, now open at the Boston Harbor Hotel. With its unmatched harbor views and peaceful ambience, Intrigue Café's Terrace on Rowes Wharf is just steps away from the Rose Kennedy Greenway and a waterfront retreat from the city's everyday hustle and bustle. Guests are welcome to toast to summer throughout the season with acclaimed Chef Daniel Bruce's signature drinks and contemporary fare.

The Terrace on Rowes Wharf is also home to the Boston Harbor Hotel's award-winning Summer in the City Entertainment Series, one of Boston's most anticipated outdoor summer traditions featuring four nights of free entertainment weekly through the end of August.

The Terrace on Rowes Wharf is open now until late fall featuring menu items such as lobster salad on a griddled roll, guacamole and house-made chips, grilled Block Island swordfish paillard with clam, saffron and romano bean paella. The Terrace on Rowes Wharf is open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner seven days a week.

About the Boston Harbor Hotel: The Boston Harbor Hotel is Boston's landmark waterfront hotel and a recent recipient of the Mobil Travel Guide Five Star Award. A member of Preferred Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, it is Boston's only independent grand hotel. With its dramatic archway and domed rotunda at historic Rowes Wharf, the building is considered an architectural treasure and is one of the most photographed buildings in New England.
